ENGLISH HOLIDAY HOMEWORK:

GUIDELINES FOR PRESENTATION: -

Key presentation don'ts are:

- Don't create slides full of text—your presentation is not a 30-page essay. Instead, create slides with just a few bullets and some type of visual to represent your content.
- Don't just read off of your slides—you'll bore your audience. Practice and rehearse your presentation or create index cards with speaking notes to make your presentation more engaging.
- Don't ramble and go over your allotted time—you'll sound flustered and unorganized. Again, make sure you practice your presentation so that you can smoothly transition from slide to slide and cover all information in the time given.

Visual Element Ideas:

- Place photos strategically on your slide to drive your point home
- Use colorful shapes and animated graphics
- Try 3D graphics to make your content pop
- Apply shaped frames to images within your slides
- Use icons to visualize your text

A few tips for engaging your audience include:

- Avoid using a monotonous tone; instead, tell stories, speak conversationally, and hold your audience's attention
- Try not to say things like, "um," "er," "like" and similar terms
- Focus on keeping good posture throughout
- Avoid chewing gum, fidgeting or doing other things that will detract from your speech
- Make eye contact with your audience rather than staring at your notes or your slides
